EARTH FARE®

Celebrate National Citrus Month with Sumo Mandarins!

They're back! Our favorite juicy, sweet and easy-to-peel Sumo mandarins are now available for a limited time! This rare seedless variety was originally cultivated in Japan in the 1970s by a grower who set out to develop the ultimate citrus experience.

This variety was dubbed the "dekopon" in Japan in reference to its uneven skin, and its distinctive Top Knot. Sumo Citrus is a good source of vitamin C, foliate, fiber and potassium. It is also low in acid, making it suitable for those with sensitive stomachs.
